Father's Day Breakfast

Nathalia Primary School had a huge crowd for the Father's Day breakfast last week. Bacon and egg sandwiches were in great demand and proved to be a tasty start to the day.

Any parents interested in being among the adults "helping" with the workshops on either Monday or Tuesday please contact The GRAIN Store's Philippa on 0400 037 432.

March of the Fire Ants

Last week the students were treated to a performance of March of the Fire Ants produced by Musica Viva. This was a high quality show that complemented the school's music and performing arts curriculum.

The artists brought an array of instruments including a piano, cello, clave sticks and clarinet for the children's enjoyment.
